THE VARSITY.

St. Joe 9; Monticello 40.

Feb. 16. — For the third time in nearly three month's playing the Varsity went down in defeat at the hands of Monticello in a game of the football type played at Monticello. Various are the reasons for St. Joe's failure to repeat the stunt they played on that team here; the loss of Winter who was knocked out at the beginning of the game, and the fact that McArdle was unable to play the second half are undoubtedly the chief causes for defeat. Add to this dirty playing, a small floor and low baskets and the story is briefly told. Even as it is, we broke even with the Monticello teams, hold the highest percent the Reps have had for years, and intend to sweep everything in Chicago tonight.

St. Joe 51; Lafayette 12.

Feb. 18. — In one of the roughest games ever played in the College Gymnasium St. Joe put it over the Lafayette visitors in grand style. Beckman and Winter were not in a condition to play but Barth and Birkmeir put up an excellent game in their stead. Few fouls were called so each side tried to rough it up as much as possible. Reichert always ploughed his way through the ranks to the basket with little difficulty and succeeded in passing the ball through the net for the tenth time before the time-keeper called halt. We are certainly able to win a victory from the e players at any time or place — even upon the gridiron.

Senior League.

II. Com. 17; Seniors 23.

Feb. 17. — The II. Com. came very near breaking their hoodoo streak, for as yet they have not won a game. Manager Shields recruits were in their best form, but a little tough luck at shooting brought defeat. Their team work was splendid as they carried the ball from one end of the floor to the other, without much interference. The Seniors failed to show up to their old time form, which seems is only brought about while playing the strongest teams. Although given a hard fight for victory at the close of the struggle they managed to shoot enough baskets to cinch victory. Shields helped his team considerably by weight, while Eisenhard and Rachor were making goals for their team.

Academic League.

Eagles 10; Shamrocks 19.

February 14. — The Shamrocks raised their percent a few pegs by capturing the game to-day. They had the lead throughout, at no time being in any danger.

Eagles 13; Maroons 11.

Feb. 17. — In a close and well played game the Eagles retrieved their former loss by defeating the Maroons, the leaders in the pennant race. Monahan took the honors for field goals, but was well aided by the other players.

Junior League.

Imperials 22; Cardinals 24.

The Cardinals became tie for first place in Junior League when they defeated the Imperials in the most exciting game of the season. The imperials had won two games out of the three from the Cardinals and the latter realizing that they must win this game or surrender the pennant, entered the game determined to carry off the honors. The Cardinals were ahead at the end of the first half, but the opposing team succeeded in tying the score before the time-keeper's whistle blew at the end of the last period. After a few minutes extra time C. M. McDonald made the winning basket. Schmidt of the Imperials and Murphy of the Cardinals starred in shooting.

Blue-Bells. 20; Laurels. 8.

Feb. 17. — The Blue-Bells lifted themselves from the last place, by winning from the Laurels. At the end of the first half the score was 4 to 1 but in the last period the Blue-Bells succeeded in running away with their opponents. W. Murphey played the game for the Blue-Bells.

Midget League.

Midgets B. 10; Midgets C. 37.

Feb. 14. — Division C. of the Midgets played with their usual alacrity allowing their opponents but few points. The game was a very close one, few fouls being made. Fitzpatrick starred in finding the circle.

Midgets A. and Midgets B.

February 17. — This game was played for several minutes overtime but the standing 7 to 7 could not be broken. It was finally called off and will be played over in the near future.

EDITORIALS.

Among the Leagues.

The result of long and diligent work is showing up in the various leagues at present; for while a loss at the beginning of the season did not mean so much, a repetition of them means that there is a deficiency somewhere. In the Senior League the II. Latins still hold control although the Senior team is climbing the ladder by rapid strides. They have got some spirit injected into them and promise to make things lively for the rest of the season. Among the Academics the Maroons have a lead that is going to be hard to overcome. Yet persistent work can make even these stars come down the line a notch. The closest and most interesting race is without doubt in the Junior Division. The Cardinals and Imperials each have the same percent on their banners, and the contest promises to be a keenly contested one till the bitter end. The two teams are so well matched that neither side has a hair's breadth of advantage over the other team. Team C. of the Midgets is much more ambitious than any other at the College; for while the rest are aiming for first place, some of them not even that high, Fitzpatrick is trying to land his quintette across the waters with a record that knows no losses.

LOCALS.

Petzold—Tokartz do your glasses magnify?

Tokartz—Yes, a little bit.

Petzold—Well remove them while cutting my share of pie.

Monahan—Say Ricks why did you quit smoking?

Ricks—Because I feared it would stunt my growth.

Prof.—Do you know why the sun never sets on the dominions of the English Kings?

Moran—Because heaven is afraid to trust an Englishman in the dark.

With the change in temperature Winter had to go way back and sit down.

Nadolny—Rensselaer has two n's has it not?

V. Sullivan—No it has only one Hotel.

If Malay jumped out of a tree for Hennihan, would Pesse-fall?

Jake—How is your musical education progressing?

Gus.—Finely. At first I could play only classical stunts but now I can do ragtime.

Music Prof.—Your shoes are not mates.

Willibald—Why not? they look alike.

Music Prof.—That's true but one of them squeaks in B flat and the other in G major.

Horan—Tony, give me your library key?

Tony—What for?

Horan—So I can wind up my essay on St. Patrick.

Malay—It would be more appropriate if Ireland's national color were red instead of green.

R. Burger—Why?

Malay—Oh, because I like Red most of all.
